

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL BRIAN M. STUMPE

Col Brian Stumpe is the vice commander, Second Air Force, Keesler Air Force Base, Miss. Second Air Force oversees all operational aspects of basic military training and technical training in Air Education and Training Command, instilling technical and warfighter skills in 150,000 graduates annually in more than 265 Air Force specialties. Second Air Force includes five training wings located at Keesler AFB; Sheppard, and Goodfellow AFB, Texas; Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, Texas; and a network of field training units around the world. Second Air Force also oversees all Airmen throughout the joint expeditionary tasking and individual augmentee training pipelines at several Army training sites across the country.

Col Stumpe enlisted in the Army in 1985 and served four years as an Infantry Paratrooper in the 82nd Airborne Division, Fort Bragg, N.C. He entered the Air Force in June 1996, and has served in a wide range of positions at the installation, major command, joint command, and the air staff levels. He also served as the director of installations, U.S. Air Forces Central Command, Al Udeid Air Base, Qatar. Prior to his current assignment, Col Stumpe was the commander of the 23rd Mission Support Group at Moody AFB, Ga.
